

Dear Sirs/Mesdames:

I write to register my strong opposition to the further relaxing of media ownership rules. I am appalled at the negative impact the consolidated ownership of electronic and print media has already had on civil society in America, one main outcome being the suffocation of public debate about the real issues of the day. Any further relaxing will only increase the harm that is now being done for the sake of profit at the expense of the public good.